

ARTHUR THE KING

ANCHOR VERSE: "I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." Philippians 3:14 ESV

REEL TRUTH: One small act of kindness — a shared meatball — created a bond nothing could break: not jungle, rivers, or exhaustion. That's a picture of a love that won't quit.

REEL TALK

Over lunch or on the drive home, talk as a family about your thoughts and reactions to Arthur the King.

MOVIE RECAP – CONVERSATION STARTERS:

- What scene stood out to you the most?
- How did the main characters change throughout the film?

GET STARTED – YOUNGER KIDS:

- The dog was named Arthur! If you found a stray dog, what would YOU name it?
- One little meatball started a big friendship. What is a small, kind thing you could do this week?

GO DEEPER – OLDER KIDS & TEENS:

- Do you think Michael's decision to enter the race was wise? Why or why not?
- How did Michael change when he realized that each of his team members were struggling in some way?
- Michael turned back to save Arthur, and it cost him the race. How can doing the right thing sometimes cost us?
- Arthur stayed no matter how hard it got. Where have you seen a love that won't quit?

ONE ACT OF LOVE. A BOND NOTHING COULD BREAK.
